

The City of Saint Albans is following social distancing guidelines issued by the Vermont Department of Health.

If you're sick, stay home.

Self-isolate if you have a fever or cough.

Stay six feet away from everyone.

Follow State guidelines for public gatherings.

Cover coughs and sneezes.

It is advised to wear a mask when interacting with members of the public outside of your household.

Ask permit holder before touching items.

Wash hands and use sanitizer.